Daytime Talker continues to make history as
Disney's Second Longest-Running Syndicated Talk Show

Today, "Tamron Hall," the nationally syndicated Emmy® Award-winning daytime talk show and Disney's second-longest-running syndicated talk show, celebrates its 1000th episode, which is full of exciting surprises.

Highlights include the following:

- To kick off this incredible milestone, Ellie the Elephant, the official mascot of the New York Liberty, delivers an electric dance performance from Barclays Center in Brooklyn.
- Emmy-winning co-anchor of "Good Morning America" Robin Roberts brings Tamron to tears in an emotional start to the celebration (watch HERE).

- David Boardman, dean of the Klein College of Media and Communication at Tamron’s alma mater, Temple University, is joined by journalism student Rachel Williams to surprise Tamron with the Gallery of Success Award, which celebrates outstanding professional achievement, inspiring students toward their future (watch HERE).
- “Tamron Hall” executive producer Quiana Burns surprises Tamron with the Soulful Sound Choir, performing an acapella rendition of her favorite motivational song, “Eye of The Tiger” (watch HERE).
- Tamron surprises a 13-year-old girl and her family with a trip to Disney World after she raised over $200,000 to support other kids through a lemonade stand (watch HERE).
- Tamron’s tradition of supporting female entrepreneurs continues as beauty entrepreneur Shontay Lundy, who created Black Girl Sunscreen, stops by (watch HERE).
- Plus, Tamron surprises the audience with giveaways to keep the party going at home! (watch HERE).

Officially renewed for season seven, the daytime talk show’s 1000th episode also marks the following:

- Over 80,000 Tam Fam members joining in-studio;
- 5,000 guests, including Academy Award® winners, GRAMMY® winners, survivors, entrepreneurs, and real people with real stories;
- Forty-four up-and-coming designers have shown their looks on our Up-and-Coming Designers Runway;
- And 13 Daytime Emmy nominations and two Emmy wins for Outstanding Informative Talk Show Host.

“Tamron Hall” is a daily destination for viewers to connect with stories and people shaping our world while tackling today’s meaningful and important topics. From the deeply personal to purely fun, Hall’s commitment to “talk about it” has energized and entertained her passionate audience, adoringly known as the Tam Fam. Hall’s dedication to facing significant and sometimes challenging conversations head-on is evident from recent episodes that covered medical gaslighting, true crime, parenthood and other timely topics. Season six of “Tamron Hall” has featured daytime exclusive interviews with Chloe Bailey, Ina Garten, Carmelo Anthony, “Coach Prime” Deion Sanders, Mary J. Blige, Ashanti, Lucy Hale, Macy Gray, Michelle Williams, Jaleel White, Savannah James, JoJo, Shyne, Jinger Duggar Vuolo, Lil Rel Howery, Jon and Hannah Gosselin and Todd and Bettijo Bridges — all leading to season rating highs.

Season six has also seen an explosive lineup of music stars and exclusive performances, including one that literally shut down the streets of New York City: Kirk Franklin's "The Reunion Tour." Miranda Lambert, Wyclef Jean, Wayne Brady and his daughter Maile, Jagged Edge, Trina, Eric Benet and Chante Moore, Erica Campbell, Bebe Winans, Lalah Hathaway and even the hot viral singers from Kidz Bop have all performed exclusively on the show.

"Tamron Hall" is distributed in national syndication by Disney Entertainment. Broadcast from New York City, the show is executive produced by Hall and Quiana Burns.
