'LIVE WITH KELLY AND MARK' KICKS OFF
SEASON 38 TUESDAY, SEPT. 2

- Kelly and Mark ignite Season 38 of "Live," the No. 1 entertainment talk show on television, with a powerhouse lineup of guests, including Mark Ruffalo, Catherine Zeta-Jones, Rose Byrne, Derek Hough, Julianne Hough, Lola Tung, Alix Earle, Taylor Kitsch, and a performance by KALEO.
- Season 38 picks up where Season 37 left off, following an unprecedented run of ratings dominance, a spring move to "Live"'s brand-new studio in Disney's New York headquarters, plus Emmy® nominations for Outstanding Daytime Talk Series and Outstanding Daytime Talk Series Hosts.
- To say goodbye to summer and celebrate Labor Day on Monday, Sept. 1, Paul Wesley and Carson Kressley will join Kelly and Mark in the studio. Plus, the show's very own Michael Gelman fires up the grill to provide tips on steaks in the spirit of the holiday.

- September also will feature “KELLY AND MARK DO IT WEEK” where Kelly and Mark will take on the hottest viral challenges. Also, “Live”'s beloved “PET WEEK” is back with furry friends up for adoption.
- “Live” remains the longest-running daytime television talk show in history, also holding onto its title as the No. 1 entertainment talk show on television.
