BETSY BEERS

Executive Producer of ABC's "Grey's Anatomy"

Betsy Beers is a groundbreaking producer and the longtime producing partner of Shonda Rhimes. Under the Shondaland banner, they have developed and produced some of the most industry-leading series in television. Through Shondaland's unprecedented exclusive deal with Netflix, Beers serves as executive producer on "Bridgerton," one of the most-watched series debut in Netflix history; "Dance Dreams: Hot Chocolate Nutcracker," following legendary choreographer Debbie Allen; "Inventing Anna," inspired by the story of Anna Delvey; and "Queen Charlotte: A Bridgerton Story," which debuted at No.1 on Netflix's English TV List and in the Top 10 in 91 countries. Most recently, Beers served as executive producer on the documentary "Black Barbie," which received the NAACP Award for Outstanding Documentary (Television) and the comedic murder mystery "The Residence" starring Uzo Aduba and Giancarlo Esposito for the streamer.

In addition, Beers is executive producer of the award-winning series "Grey's Anatomy" and, along with Rhimes, developed and produced the hit series "Private Practice," "Scandal," "How to Get Away with Murder," "For The People" and "Station 19" for Shondaland and ABC.
