What began as the start of an exciting new college chapter quickly turned into a nightmare. When 18-year-old University of Florida freshman Christian Aguilar disappears without a trace, his tight-knit family launches a desperate search — one that soon draws in the entire Gainesville, Florida, community. As days stretch into weeks, what emerges is a dark trail of obsession, deceit and a heartbreaking betrayal that leads investigators to a killer hiding in plain sight. Now, a new investigation reveals the lengths one killer would go to try to cover their tracks and get away with murder. Featuring secret messages, jailhouse recordings and exclusive details one will only see on “20/20,” ABC News correspondent Victor Oquendo reports on a complex web of lies and deceit that is unlike anything authorities have ever seen before on an all-new “20/20,” FRIDAY, JUNE 20 (9:01 - 11:00 p.m. EDT), on ABC and streaming the next day on Hulu.

Oquendo traveled to Gainesville to report on the investigation and sat down for an exclusive prison interview with someone Christian trusted — a person now convicted of a horrific crime. Oquendo also speaks with Christian’s parents, Carlos and Claudia Aguilar; State Attorney for Florida’s Eighth Judicial Circuit, Brian Kramer and investigator Tom Mullins.
