Miley Cyrus will release a new song and video, "Used To Be Young" on Aug. 25.

In celebration of the release of "Used To Be Young," Miley shares stories and insights from the many chapters of her life within the TV special event, "Endless Summer Vacation: Continued (Backyard Sessions)." The special airs THURSDAY, AUG. 24 (10:00-11:00 p.m. EDT), on ABC. Reimagined from the version which originally aired on Disney+, the special now features a brand-new interview as well as music from her latest release “Endless Summer Vacation,” including her hit single “Flowers,” plus one of her chart-topping classic hits. The new,2 reimagined special will stream next day on Hulu.

Pre-save “Used To Be Young” here. Fans can also purchase a special 7-inch of the track; pre-order here.

“Used To Be Young” is Miley’s first new music offering since the release of her critically and commercially acclaimed album “Endless Summer Vacation” which featured her hit single “Flowers” and 12 additional tracks. A true worldwide smash, “Flowers” spent eight weeks at No. 1 on the Billboard Hot 100 – a personal best for Miley. “Flowers” was No. 1 on U.S. Pop Radio for 10 weeks and is the fastest-running song in nearly a decade to achieve the position. “Flowers” has streamed 4 billion times and was the fastest song in history to hit 500 million streams on Spotify. It’s officially the longest-running UK No. 1 single by a female solo artist.

Additionally, “Used To Be Young” arrives just before the 10th anniversary of Miley Cyrus’ 3x platinum album, “Bangerz” (September). A benchmark album, “Bangerz” was home to beloved original hits such as “Wrecking Ball,” “We Can’t Stop” and “Adore You.” In celebration of the anniversary, there will be a limited-edition vinyl with updated packaging featuring never-before-seen photos and the bonus track “23” with Mike WiLL Made-It.
