

BIOGRAPHY

GUILLERMO RODRIGUEZ

Contestant on ABC's "Dancing with the Stars"

Like fellow superstars Madonna, Oprah and Godzilla, Guillermo is instantly recognizable by a single name. He has been working on "Jimmy Kimmel Live" for over 23 years, and recently launched his own brand of fresh salsa, Guillermo's Salsa. Discovered in the parking lot where he worked as a security guard, Guillermo blossomed into a beloved and regular part of the show. Guillermo is featured every night alongside Jimmy and is frequently showcased in his own iconic segments on the Oscars® red carpet, on cross-country road trips, and anywhere he can drink tequila or see his "wife," Charlize Theron. A resident of California and a U.S. citizen since 2005, Guillermo counts watching soccer, eating Mexican food, spending time with family and being involved with his son's sports among his favorite things.
