

RHIANNON ALLY

*Co-anchor of "Good Morning America" Sunday
ABC News correspondent*

Rhiannon Ally is co-anchor of "Good Morning America" on Sunday mornings and a correspondent for ABC News, reporting across the network's programs and platforms, including "Good Morning America," "World News Tonight," "Nightline" and more.

Ally joined ABC News in December of 2021 and was overnight co-anchor of "World News Now" and "America This Morning" from 2022 to 2025.

She helped lead the network's live breaking news coverage of the Francis Scott Key Bridge collapse in Baltimore and anchored overnight coverage of the deaths of Queen Elizabeth II and Pope Francis, as well as the papal conclave when Pope Leo was elected. She also reported on the Mexican Navy's sailboat crash into the Brooklyn Bridge.

Ally has sat down with newsmakers and celebrities, including an exclusive interview with Hayden Panettiere's mother after the actress' tragic death at just 36, longtime Dallas Cowboys owner Jerry Jones to discuss his storied history with the team, Saquon Barkley, Brad Paisley, Gene Simmons, John Stamos, Ryan Reynolds, Hugh Jackman, Miranda Lambert, Orlando Bloom and more.

Ally's live reporting has taken her across the United States and even included reports from a cold plunge tub and atop one of the oldest wooden roller coasters in the country.

She was born and raised in Kansas City, Missouri, and joined ABC News from KSHB-TV in Kansas City, where she served as a weekday evening co-anchor, earning two regional Emmy® Awards for best evening newscast.

Before KSHB-TV, Ally was in Miami at WFOR-TV, where she anchored "CBS4 This Morning" and "CBS4 News at Noon." While at WFOR, she anchored breaking news across the country, including the Boston Marathon bombing, Hurricane Sandy and the papal conclave following Pope Benedict's retirement. She also created her own weekly series focusing on modern-day parenting.

Ally also worked at WCBS-TV in New York as a substitute news anchor and entertainment news reporter. She also co-hosted the nationally syndicated lifestyle and entertainment program "Better TV," where she reported from the red carpet at the MTV Video Music Awards in Los Angeles, traveled to London to cover the world premiere of "Avatar," and conducted one-on-one interviews with icons like Madonna, Denzel Washington, Caroline Kennedy and Gloria Steinem.

Ally is married to Mike Marza, who co-anchors WABC-TV's "Eyewitness News" at 5 p.m. and "Eyewitness News" at 11 p.m. They have three children.

-- 2026 --