

BIOGRAPHY

AVA BUNN

Dr. Sam Tosh on ABC's "Scrubs"

Ava Bunn is an actress and comedian who was named one of Just For Laughs' 2025 New Faces and a series regular in the hit reboot of "Scrubs" on ABC. She also appears on the Netflix series "A Man on the Inside," from Mike Schur and starring Ted Danson, and "Five Star Weekend" on Peacock with Jennifer Garner and Chloe Sevigny.

Currently studying at The Groundlings and with the Upright Citizens Brigade, Los Angeles, Bunn recently graduated from USC's theater and screenwriting program, where she earned the John Ritter Memorial Award for Comedic Excellence. Bunn performs solo characters and hosts the popular live show "Late Bloomers" monthly at Upright Citizens Brigade in Los Angeles and Union Hall in Brooklyn.

Her most recent solo show, "Cold Call," ran at the Upright Citizens Brigade and has played to a standing-room-only crowd at the 2024 New York Comedy Festival. She recently starred in Alice Stanley Jr.'s staged reading of "The Second Best School Shooting," executive-produced by Adam McKay and Shira Piven.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

HOMETOWN: San Diego, California

BIRTHDATE: Feb. 21

-- 2026-2027 --