

JENNY WAGNON COURTS

Director of News Services, ABC News

Jenny Wagnon Courts is the director of News Services at ABC News, where she leads the team responsible for organizing and distributing content across all ABC News programs, ABC Owned Television Stations and affiliates.

An award-winning journalist, Wagnon Courts joined ABC News in 2019 as an investigative producer. She spent a year in Texas as part of the team behind “Uvalde 365,” a yearlong initiative examining the aftermath of the Robb Elementary School shooting. Her additional notable work includes “Homegrown Hate,” an in-depth investigation into extremism in America, and the 9/11 anniversary series with anchor George Stephanopoulos. She is a five-time Emmy® Award winner and a recipient of the Edward R. Murrow Award.

Prior to joining ABC News, Wagnon Courts spent 17 years in local news at KWTW in Oklahoma City, primarily as the executive producer and news director.

Wagnon Courts lives with her husband and their blended family.
