- Season four of the hit Disney Jr. series “Marvel’s Spidey and his Amazing Friends,” from Disney Branded Television, will premiere Monday, June 16, on Disney Jr. (8:00 a.m. PDT) and later that day on Disney Channel and Disney Jr. on Demand, with six episodes available the following day, Tuesday, June 17, on Disney+.
- The series, which originally premiered in August 2021, continues to grow in popularity as the No. 2 streaming series for kids and boys 2-5.* It has 2.3 billion views across Disney Jr. and Marvel HQ YouTube channels and 896 million hours streamed globally on Disney+ to date.
- Season four will introduce a new “Water-Webs” story arc in which Team Spidey receives water-themed powers and pirate suits. It also continues the popular “Dino-Webs” story arc from season three.

- A new batch of “Meet Spidey and his Amazing Friends” shorts will also premiere Monday, June 16, on Disney Channel, Disney Jr., Disney Jr. YouTube and Marvel HQ YouTube, with all 10 shorts available on Disney+ beginning June 25.
- Captain America will make his first appearance in the series in the short “Captain America Lends a Hand.” He will then join the lineup as a recurring character throughout season four.
- Jeff the Land Shark, the breakout star from Marvel Comics and the popular “Marvel Rivals” video game, will also be featured in multiple episodes.
- A multi-single release from Walt Disney Records featuring the songs “Webs Ahoy” and “It’s Jeff” from the new season will debut tomorrow, Friday, May 30. Both songs are written by series’ songwriter/composer Patrick Stump (Fall Out Boy).

About “Marvel’s Spidey and his Amazing Friends”

“Marvel’s Spidey and his Amazing Friends” follows the adventures of Peter Parker, Gwen Stacy and Miles Morales as they team up with Super Heroes to defeat foes and learn that teamwork is the best way to save the day.

One of the top streaming series for Kids and Boys 2-5, all episodes of seasons 1-3 are available to stream on Disney+. The series’ popularity extends off-screen as well, ranking in the top five-selling overall preschool toy licenses globally. Its stories and characters also resonate in other formats such as books and music, including a “My First Comic” from Marvel Press and multiple soundtracks from Walt Disney Records.

“Marvel’s Spidey and his Amazing Friends” is produced by Disney Jr. and Marvel Studios in association with Atomic Cartoons. Harrison Wilcox, Bart Jennett and Chris Moreno are executive producers, alongside Becca Topol, who serves as producer/story editor, and Steve Grover as supervising producer.

The series regular voice cast for season four includes Alkaio Thiele as Peter Parker, Audrey Bennett as Gwen Stacy and Carter Young as Miles Morales. Returning guest cast includes John Stamos as Tony Stark, Bindi Irwin as Isla Corallton and Kylie Cantrall as White Tiger.
