

DENISE REHRIG

Executive Producer, ABC News Live

Denise Rehrig is the executive producer of “Prime with Linsey Davis” on ABC News Live, where she oversees all aspects of the evening newscast, from overall editorial direction to story development and day-to-day production.

Prior to ABC News, Rehrig served as co-executive producer of “The Late Show with Stephen Colbert,” where she led the show to a Primetime Emmy® win for its 2020 election night special and a Peabody Award in 2020. Under her leadership, the show expanded its digital footprint, doubling its Instagram following and growing its TikTok audience by more than two million.

Earlier in her career, Rehrig was a senior broadcast producer for “Good Morning America” during the pivotal time when the show first surpassed the “Today” show as the No. 1 morning show in America. Rehrig was part of the leadership team that earned the show three Daytime Emmy Awards for Outstanding Morning Program. She has covered breaking news and major national and global events, including the Boston Marathon bombing, the disappearance of Malaysia Airlines flight 370, the 2008 and 2012 presidential elections, and the papal conclave electing Pope Francis.

Rehrig began her career at CNBC, where she produced financial and political programs including “Squawk on the Street” and “Fast Money.” She is a graduate of the Missouri School of Journalism at the University of Missouri.
