

LORI HARVEY

Chelsea, "Reasonable Doubt"

As a proven entrepreneur and influential businesswoman, actor Lori Harvey possesses unique and undefinable qualities that not only capture everyone's attention but also have the power to make a significant impact on the world. Ultimately, she continues to separate herself as a 28-year-old millennial trailblazer. In 2024, Harvey entered her Hollywood era with a role in Peacock's star-studded limited series "Fight Night: The Million Dollar Heist."

The former equestrian and well-traveled Atlanta native grew up surrounded by entrepreneurial energy as the youngest daughter of business moguls Steve and Marjorie Harvey. She stands out as president/CEO of Lori Harvey Enterprises, the home of her skin care and swimwear brands. She is also a philanthropist and an accomplished model being a face of brands such as Chanel, Ferragamo, and more.

Harvey's goal is to continue to innovate and elevate acting while leading her string of business ventures ranging from beauty and fashion.
